

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Dear Students,

With respect to the increasing Covid-19 cases and the latest Government guidelines to contain them, NEXT IAS is taking the following necessary steps with immediate effect.

Following the Delhi Government's latest order on curfews on movement of individuals in the territory of the NCT of Delhi with effect from 10:00 PM on 19.04.2021 (Monday) to 5:00 AM on 03.05.2021 (Monday), the institute will stay closed on the above mentioned period until further notice.

All the offline enquiries till 02 May, 2021 will be conducted online and telephonically.

For uninterrupted learning, all the Offline classrooms had been shifted to Live/Online mode after the previous notice on weekend curfews. However, all the Live/Online mode classrooms have been suspended till 02.05.2021 or a further Government notification in this regard and you will be informed about their resumption.

For better cooperation and connectivity between the students and the management, you are being provided with an updated list of emails and contact numbers, which can be accessed during the office hours. In case you are unable to reach out to us or your call is not answered immediately, you are requested to try again shortly.
