

!! Important Notice For NEXT IAS students !!

Due to increase in COVID / Omicron cases in Delhi, Government of Delhi has notified to close physical classes in all educational institutes including coaching classes till further orders, therefore Next IAS offline classes will be suspended from 4 PM on 29th Dec 2021 till further order of Government.

Offline classes will resume as soon as Government permits to start again.

NOTE:1 For GS Foundation Offline Batches (2022 & 2023)

Next IAS will provide Live Online classes from 30th December 2021 till the date of offline classes resume. The schedule of Live online classes will be communicated to all the students by uploading the schedule in website/ Next IAS telegram group/channel latest by 7 PM on 29th Dec.

Next IAS would like to assure all its students (GS & Optional batches) that those subjects which will be taught online during covid lockdown, such subjects will be permitted to attend again in offline in current/ upcoming batches, hence those students who would be interested to repeat in offline, they will be allowed to attend again.

NOTE :2 For CSAT (Offline batches for CSE 2022),

Live Online classes will be provided in morning & evening batch time schedule. Afternoon batch of CSAT students can access Morning Live classes or Evening Live classes as per the already provision made.

NOTE :3 For Optional Subject Batches:

Sociology, Economics, Geography & Mathematics optional classes will be conducted live online. The class schedule will be communicated on telegram group.

Note :5 For GSPM Live-Online batches: All the Online classes will continue as per Schedule.
